

UPL. Outperformer

When the global crop protection chemicals industry passed through one of its most challenging phases, it would have been reasonable to seek growth cues from the marketplace.

At UPL, we sought our cues from within.

We expanded existing downstream capacities; we built new plants in India and Brazil.

We commissioned capacities to manufacture key raw materials

We invested within to increase operating efficiency

The result is in our outperformance.